West London-based live music and event photographer John Williams presents a selection of powerful live shots featuring some of the world's finest contemporary artists and local talent alike.

From international festival headliners such as Nick Cave and Grace Jones to established British venue-fillers Doves, John has produced images from across the UK, Europe and many of London's most famous venues including the O2 Shepherd's Bush Empire and Camden Roundhouse.

Capturing the energy, passion and vulnerability of the artists, John's photos hold the ability to express the most intimate of emotions from the most public of moments.

John's passion for live music fuels his photographic work. Over the past few years his natural eye has developed an acute sense of the personal. There is an honesty and rawness to his work that has the ability to portray a full sensory experience from within the frozen split second.

This is John's second solo exhibition, having presented a specific collection for Oxjam – a music festival in aid of Oxfam – in October 2009 at the Tricycle Theatre in Kilburn.

This collection of images will be on display and available for sale at the Riverside Studios Gallery from 1st September until 17th September.
